Laguna Niguel resident Melissa Beck, chief executive of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County and the Inland Empire, was awarded with the Institute for Influential Community Impact's Pillars of Influence Award in the Family & Social Services category. The Institute's inaugural event recognized seven influencers and organizations across Orange County. Beck was recognized for her work with the Orange County and Inland Empire agency, which serves more than 3,000 children annually through one-to-one matches between mentors ("Bigs") and children ("Littles") facing adversity.
