52ND ANNUAL GOURMET DINNER

Actor David Arquette hosted the 52nd Annual Gourmet Dinner benefiting Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County and the Inland Empire. The Sept. 22 event, which grossed a record of approximately $1.5 million for the youth mentoring nonprofit, was attended by 400 community and business leaders at Balboa Bay Resort. Alongside Arquette were co-chairs Joseph Ueberroth, W. Henry Walker and Pat Maciariello.

At the event, Newport Beach resident Rudy J. Baldoni—who is the nonprofit's national chair and serves on the local agency's executive board—was honored with the 2016 Joel K. Rubenstein Award for his longtime support of Big Brothers Big Sisters. In addition to the award ceremony, the event also featured a cocktail reception complete with hand-rolled cigars, followed by a three-course dinner and a live auction. One particularly moving moment was when Carlos, 18, shared how his mentor, Daniel Khalili, helped him to overcome his issues with alcohol and substance abuse. (ocbigs.org) —A.B.
